

An occasional crying child on a long air flight is unavoidable. A constant cacophony of irritating, intrusive voices is intolerable and TOTALLY unnecessary.